Background & History

HEPA was set up in 2011 in response to the Diamond Report: collaboration, behaviour, data management...

Mission Statement & Scope

HEPA is dedicated to supporting procurement teams and their related communities throughout higher education. It will provide a comprehensive range of tools, resources, training and events to enable the development and demonstration of value for money, efficiency and effectiveness for individuals, the function, and the wider sector.

Structure

HEPA is part of BUFDG, which is in turn part of Professional HE Services, or PHES:

Board

HEPA is directed by a Management Board chaired by Martyn Riddleston, FD Leicester; deputy chair Veronica Daly, CPO Kings College London; representatives from the Consortia and BUFDG regions – your London Rep is Daniel Barry, Head of Procurement, Royal Holloway, and Consortia Rep is Don Bowman, Director, LUPC.

 Great to be able to publish our report of the recent #AUDEBigConvo 2020 Big Conversation event - you'll find it online at: aude.ac.uk/events/big-con... - together with a highlights video, while AUDE members can click through to films of the full plenary sessions and panel discussions

Two great panels, two great plenary sessions, one great event...and now the report of the day is available. Don't miss out.

MEMBERSHIP

Membership type	HEPA Associate
Website level	Silver
HEPA web account	Yes
HEPA resources	All
HEPA events	All
HEPA e-learning	Procurement and Compliance only (Incl. Pro for all)
HEPA discussions	All (no HoP board access)

All HE organisations here today are already members of HEPA through their BUFDG subscription.

Thanks to LUPC, HEPA membership is also available to everybody in the room.

Non-HE members can join HEPA for £500 + VAT per annum.

LUPC very kindly subsidise 50% this membership fee.

As we are half way through the 2019-20 financial year, the membership fee is now accordingly half price for the rest of the year.
