

COLLABORATION IN ACTION
LUPC & SUPC CONFERENCE 2021

LUPC & SUPC CONFERENCE

Digital Inclusivity and e-Learning:
The Future of Library Services?

20 May 2021

SUPC

Gavin Phillips

Category Manager, Estates

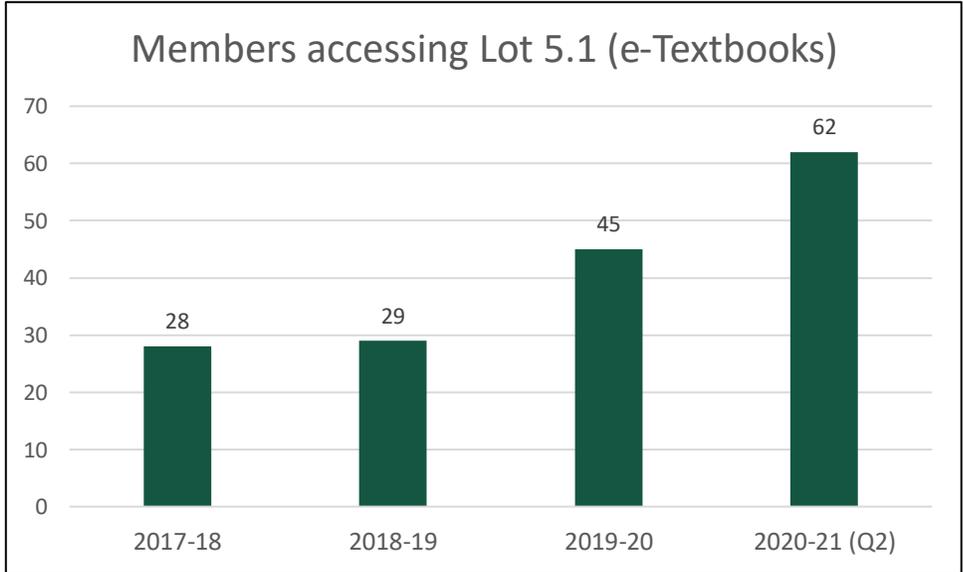

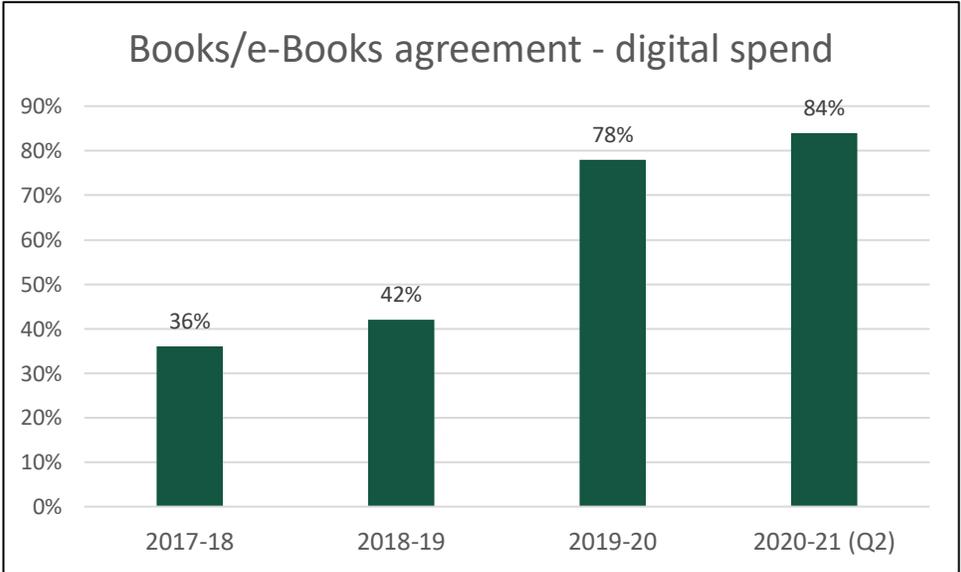

g.j.phillips@reading.ac.uk

Market Trends

- Periodicals agreement
 - Shift to Open Access publishing
 - Negotiation of 'read and publish' deals
 - Impact on spend
 - Consolidation of suppliers
- Books agreement
 - Accelerated digital shift
 - Increased digital textbook activity

Shift to Digital Within the Books/e-Books Agreement

Category Insights

- Inclusivity of curricula and library collections
 - Decolonisation
- Sector focus on metadata
 - Better student experience
 - Improving value for money
- Digital learning
 - CourseWare
 - Streaming video solutions

Impact of COVID-19

- Impact on spend
- Loss of suppliers
 - Dawson Books/Dawsonera e-book platform
- Negative impact on library stakeholders
- Retaining positives of forced change
 - Lessons learned from Dawson Books
 - More effective framework management

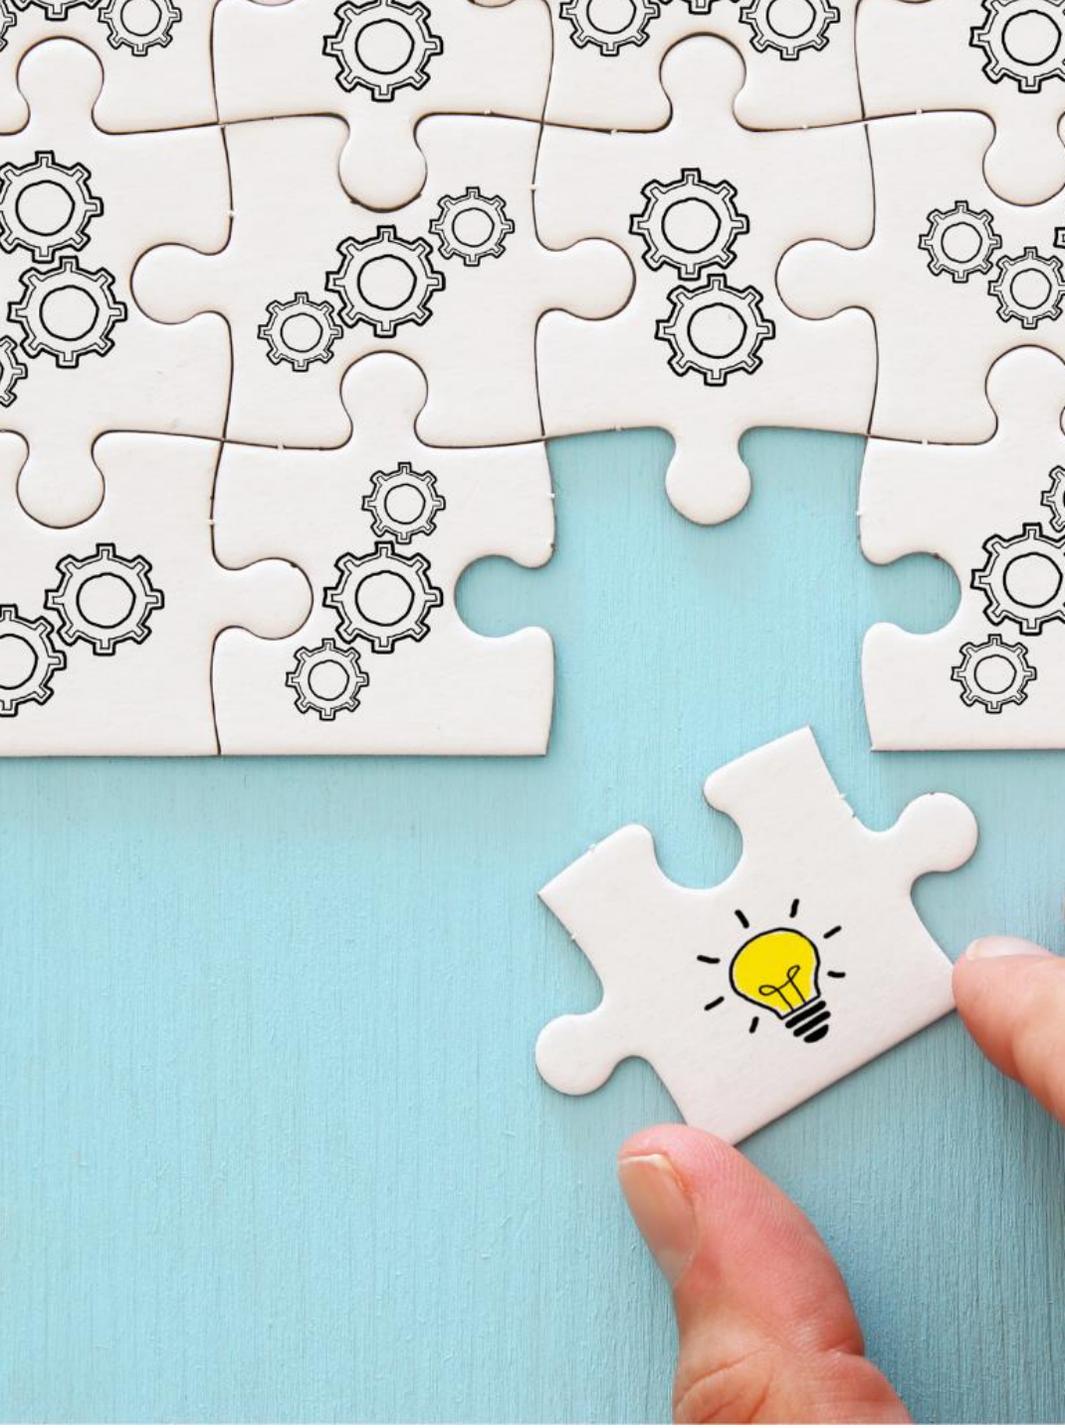

New Framework Agreements

- No new frameworks planned
- Areas to explore:
 - CourseWare
 - Open Access publishing
 - Student wellbeing

Tenders In Progress

- Books, e-Books, and e-Textbooks
 - English and Welsh consortia
 - ITT expected end of June
 - Agreement expected to be live 1st December
 - Current agreement extended to 31st January
- Periodicals
 - Currently expires 30th April 2022
 - Can be extended by a further 12 months
 - Review with Members and Suppliers in summer

Resources

Books, E-books, Standing Orders and Related Materials:
<https://www.supc.ac.uk/frameworks/577/>

Serials, Periodicals and Associated Services:
<https://www.supc.ac.uk/frameworks/870/>

Library Purchasing Coordination Group:
<https://www.jisc.ac.uk/get-involved/jisc-collections-strategic-groups#purchasing>